

SEM-WEEKLY SOUTH CENTRUM,
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1887.
CHAS. M. MEACHAM - Editor.

The "We" ticket was elected by 1,000 majority in the city election at Atlanta last week.

The business failures in the United States for the week ending Dec. 9th aggregated 226 against 244 for the week and 274 the corresponding week of last year.

John Arnsdorf, the assassin of Rev. Geo. C. Haddock, at Sioux City, who made himself obnoxious by the rigid enforcement of the prohibition law, was tried last week and acquitted.

One hundred and thirty of the 325 members of the Lower House of Congress are new men. Three of the last House—Hiscock, Reagan and Daniel—have been promoted to the Senate.

Hon. John S. Barbour has been nominated and elected to the Senate, by the Democratic Legislature of Virginia. He will step in when Ridderberger steps down and out Mar. 4, 1889.

Warron Meek, a boy 15 years old, is discussing the tariff in a series of articles to the Catlettsburg Democrat. Discussing the tariff at that tender age! What will he come to in the time he reaches manhood?

Hon. Jas. F. Clay, of Henderson, is the father of a couple of bouncing twin babies, born on the 4th inst. Col. Clay formerly represented this district in Congress and is at present attorney of the Ohio Valley Railroad Co.

Another train robbery has occurred in Arkansas, the St. Louis, Arkansas & Texas Railroad being the sufferers. The train was stopped a few miles north of Texarkana and over $10,000 secured. Great excitement prevails and four men have been arrested and are in jail.

Judge J. W. Church, of Greenville, announces himself as a Republican candidate for State Senator. A Democratic convention will meet at Beaver Dam this week to nominate a candidate, and Col. Church proposes in advance to enter into an agreement to stay at home and make no canvass. The election comes off Dec. 22.

The Owensboro Daily Messenger, which is by far the best daily in the State outside of Louisville, scored another triumph by publishing the President's message in full the morning after its delivery to Congress. The editors had to roll up their sleeves and help put the matter in type, but the feat was accomplished and the paper come out on time.

The Supreme Court has affirmed the constitutionality of the Kansas prohibition law, the opinion being delivered by Justice Harlan. The case was taken up by liquor men who claimed that the law was unconstitutional in that it confiscated or destroyed the value of their liquor property by making it unlawful for them to dispose of the same.

Don M. Dickinson, the new Postmaster General, is 41 years old and is something on the order of a dude in personal appearance. He is clean shaved around the mouth and has long flowing side whiskers that are the envy of the other members of the Cabinet. But they do say he is a Democrat from away back and is in favor of making a wholesale sweep of Republican postmasters still in office. Don is a daisy.

Secretary Lamar has given a decision that deprives the Union Pacific railroad of 200,000 acres of land southwest of Denver, Col., and authorized the Attorney General to bring suit if the railroad company refuses to surrender its rights. If the land in question is no better than the sterile alkali plains of eastern and southern Colorado, it is hardly worth going to law about and the railroad should be glad to get rid of it.

Loving Gaines, of the Elton Progress, gives himself away after this fashion: "A Louisville young man has been arrested at Covington, Ky., upon a charge of "squeezing" married and single women. A rather soft impeachment to be sure, as the detectable sensations are doubtless mutual and therefore honors are easy. When "hugging" becomes either a misdemeanor or a crime, the police force of not only the cities but the villages and country seats will necessarily be largely augmented."

Four assignments of business firms within forty-eight hours have created somewhat of a panic in Hopkinsville—Owensboro Messenger. This is news indeed in Hopkinsville. There were two assignments about two weeks ago. One of these was a small millinery store, the proprietor of which had been here less than a year and who attempted to engage in a business already over-crowded in the city. The other assignment was brought about by too much credit business and was by no means so unexpected as to produce a panic. Last week there was one other break, a druggist whose failure was brought about by the same causes—too much credit business and too much competition. All of these establishments have been hard pressed for months and it was simply a coincidence that they all collapsed about the same time.

The Republican Call.

The following extract from the Republican campaign circular, issued by the National Committee, gives notice of what the substance of the National Platform will be next year: "Republican electors in the several States and voters without regard to past political affiliation, difference or action, who believe in the American principle of a protective tariff for the defense and development of home industries and the elevation of homesteaders, who would reverse the National taxes and prevent the accumulation of the surplus in the treasury in harmony with this principle; who are opposed to the attempt now more openly avowed than ever before to establish a policy which would strike down American labor to the level of the underpaid and oppressed workers of foreign land; who favor a system of naval and coast defenses which will enable the United States to conduct its international negotiations with self-respect; who gratefully cherish the founders of the country; who condemn and resent the continued and unjust exclusion of rapidly-growing Territories, which have an indisputable title to admission into the sisterhood of States; who are in favor of free schools and popular education, a free and honest ballot and fair count; the protection of every citizen of the United States in his legal rights at home and abroad; a foreign policy that shall extend our trade and commerce to every land and climate, and shall properly support the dignity of the nation, and the promotion of friendly and harmonious relations and intercourse between all the States, are cordially invited to unite under this call in the formation of a national ticket."

of Chicago was a victory for Blaine, as Sherman preferred Cincinnati. The usual number of delegates, to be chosen in the manner heretofore adopted, will constitute the convention. The plan of the Blaine men is to have the Plumed Knight land at San Francisco from his trip around the world about the time the Convention meets.

He will be nominated and immediately thereafter will cross the continent, stopping at all important points to arouse the enthusiasm of his party followers. The fact that Mr. Blaine hastened to reply to the President's Message indicates that he is not only willing but anxious to make another attempt next year to attain the object of his ambition, and is willing to go to the country on the clean cut issue of protection against tariff reform.

Four miners fell out of the carriage in a coal shaft, near Wilkesbarre, Pa., and two of them were instantly killed the other two being fatally injured.

Miss Mollie Dulin, of Morton's Gap, is visiting Miss Richie Boales.

Miss Minnie Wilkerson, of Nashville, is visiting Mrs. John W. Richards.

Col. M. H. Crump, of Bowling

ville, returned home Saturday after

CITY ELECTION.

The Republican Ticket Elected.

In the city election last Saturday two tickets were voted for. One was the Republican ticket, being the present Board with the substitution of another Republican for one of the three Democrats heretofore allowed the minority. The other was called the "Citizens Reform Ticket" and was composed of four Republicans and three Democrats. The tickets are given below:

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Geo. O. Thompson, D. E. P. Campbell, R.
E. E. Campbell, R. J. M. Starling, R.
G. A. Brown, Alex. Gilliland, R.
Alex. Anderson, F. J. Brownell, R.
Alex. Gilliland, J. M. Howe, R.
J. M. Starling, M. C. Forbes, D.
D. R. Beard, D. J. G. Hord, D.

It will be observed that three names were on both tickets. Mr. S. E.
Trice, who was taken from the old board ticket by the Republicans to make a place for Mr. Anderson, received a number of complimentary votes. Several other parties received scattering votes. The vote in detail was as here given.

E. P. Campbell.....51 M. C. Forbes.....205
J. M. Starling.....51 Jas. M. Howe.....164
Alex. Gilliland.....51 F. J. Brownell.....159
Geo. O. Thompson.....411 S. E. Trice.....40
G. A. Brown.....411 J. G. Hord.....162
D. R. Beard, D. J. G. Hord, D. 9
A. H. Anderson.....51 J. M. Howe.....164
W. M. Hill.....5

The first named seven, receiving the highest number of votes, will constitute the Board of Councilmen for the year 1888. Messrs. Thompson and Beard are the only Democrats on the Board. It will be seen that less than 550 votes, about half of the votes of the city, were polled, most of these being Republicans. The negroes were out in force and whisky was obtainable from some source, as there was a good deal of drunkenness all through the day and the election
wound up with a disgraceful orgie
at night.

Mr. Harry Ferguson, Rep., was re-elected City Attorney without opposition, receiving 400 votes. One complimentary vote was cast for Maj.
John Phelps.

More Prohibition Cases.

The third, fourth and fifth indi-ments against Jackson Tate were called Friday and the following jury empanelled to try them: Jno. W.
Cooper, Marshal Adcock, John White,
J. H. Moss, John Young, P. C. Car-
carter, J. B. Jenkins, Tom Word,
Jno. W. Stith, Wes Buckner, col.,
Dick Harrison, col., Oscar Vaughn,
col.

The same witnesses in the previous
cases were examined and Messrs.
Braithwaite and Stites discussed the case for the defense and R. W. Henry appeared as the representative of the Commonwealth and the Law and Order Club. The case went to the jury Saturday at 2:30 and in fifteen minutes a verdict of "not guilty" was returned. There are still eight cases against Tate and they were set for the 19th inst. and his recognizance
for $500 taken.
